Political Process / Measures Voters will decide on November 2nd whether medical marijuana users should be able to buy their drugs at nonprofit retail outlets called Dispensaries. Measure 74 would be a big change in Medical Marijuana, which Oregon legalized in 1998. Currently, patients can grow their own or designate someone to do it for them, but they cannot pay for the drug. Proponents say the dispensaries would create a better regulated system that's more convenient for users. Opponents, like law enforcement officers, say the measure is poorly drafted and one more step toward legalization of marijuana.	Measure 74	News	10/5/2010	11p, 6a, 12p	3
Transportation / Driving There's a new look to California's driver's license. The DMV says this one will be harder to fake.	CA License	News	10/6/2010	11p, 6a	2
Education / Quality The Oregon Education Department released a report assessing high schools. Ashland High School is celebrating an Outstanding rating from the department, with an assessment index of 85. In Central Point, Crater Renaissance Academy got a Satisfactory assessment index of 55.	School Assessment	News	10/7/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	5

Education / Testing There's a new program in Jackson and Josephine Counties that can help job seekers improve their chances of employment. The National Career Readiness Certificate requires a 4-hour proctored test in applied mathematics, locating information, and information reading. The Oregon Employment Department hopes this will be a way to bring more business to Southern Oregon by demonstrating a skilled workforce. Officials at the Job Council say that while some may be afraid of taking the test, it gives applicants a leg up in the job application process.	Certificate	News	10/11/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4

QUARTERLY ISSUES & PROGRAMS LIST FOR KTVL-TV MEDFORD

Quarter: October-November-December 2010

MAIN / SECONDARY ISSUE DESCRIPTION	TITLE	PROGRAM	START DATE	AIR TIME	RUNS
Political Process / Voting Voter registrations are due tomorrow and Democrats and Republicans are already gearing up to get your vote. Both parties urge you to vote as soon as possible. They say they know who has voted and who hasn't; the best way to get them to stop calling is to cast your ballot early.	Register	News	10/11/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	10
10/12/10: The deadline to register is here and last-minute voters made sure their registration card got in. Once you've received your ballot and filled it out, you can drop it at the Jackson County Clerk's Office in a 24-hour curbside drop box; the libraries in Ashland and Central Point as well as 24-hour drop boxes at those locations; and at City Hall's in Rogue River and Eagle Point during business hours.
Business / New Business New businesses are coming to the Rogue Valley Mall. Earlier this month, Toys-R-Us opened their holiday store, Toys-R-Us Express, and Bed Bath and Beyond announced they will be opening a location in Medford.	New Stores	News	10/12/2010	5p, 6p, 6a, 12p	4
Fires / Funding Fire season is still underway, but Oregon Department of Forestry is already looking toward next fire season by offering an incentive if you make your home fire safe. They have more than $1 million for those that want to fix up their yard and clear the brush. The cash comes from a Federal grant. As soon as fire season is officially over, they'll send assessors to look at properties; those that qualify will be reimbursed $400 per acre. They'll focus on lawns in Shady Cove, Eagle Point, and Ashland, but everyone is welcome to get in on the program.	Fire Grant	News	10/12/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
Transportation / Safety Fog can cause delays and cancellations at the Rogue Valley International Airport. The airport now has a new tool to help them with the frustrating problem. The FAA put a halt to cloud seeding last December, leaving the airport at a stand still when severe fog rolled through. That's when CASPER (Cable Attached System Providing Effective Release) was invented. It operates from a helium balloon, tethered to a vehicle, and is powered by remote control. The balloon will be released 500 feet into the air and will group with fog and turn it into snow, which will fall to the ground.	Fighting Fog	News	10/13/2010	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
Environment / Management The removal of Gold Ray Dam is complete. Demolition took around four months to finish. Not everyone wanted the dam removed, some protested the decision back in May saying it was an historical fixture. The Rogue River now runs for 157 miles starting from the Silver Creek Dam all the way to the Pacific Ocean without any breaks.	Gold Ray Dam	News	10/14/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	5
Environment / Recycling Hundreds of refrigerators and freezers recycled in this year's Energy Trust free recycling service. During the 30 day challenge last year, only 15 people used the service. This year that number increased to 251. Energy Trust says the electricity saved by replacing those old appliances can power 20 homes for an entire year.	Recycle	News	10/14/2010	5p, 6p, 6a, 12p	4
Transportation / Safety City and State officials are trying to make our roads safer for bikers and pedestrians. According to Alta Planning and Design, 60% of Oregonians would like to bike to work, but are concerned for their safety. 150 people from across the state attended seminars in Medford to brainstorm ideas about how to make the Valley more suitable for active transportation.	Safe Roads	News	10/15/2010	5p, 6p, 11p	3
Political Process / Election Results We're inching toward the November election and ballots are now in the mail. All Jackson County ballots are in the mail and registered voters can expect to get them as soon as Monday. Ballots can be mailed in or dropped off at the 24 hour curbside drop box outside the County Clerk's office on Main Street. Other locations will start accepting ballots after October 25: Ashland and Central Point libraries will be open 24 hours, and Rogue River and Eagle Point City Halls will be open during normal business hours.	Election	News	10/15/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	48
10/25/10: Politicians still have a week to win over voters in most of the country, but in Oregon, some ballots are already marked and returned. A couple ballot boxes in Southern Oregon opened last week and the rest opened today. According to the the Jackson County Clerk's Office, the total cast ballot is just under 14%.
11/01/10: Locally, both parties are trying to sway last minute voters and both are taking very different approaches to getting the word out. Democrats are going door-to-door to all those who didn't vote, while the Republicans stayed indoors and made phone calls.

11/3/10: Oregon Governor and a State Senate seat are both too close to call. News10 presents election results.
11/4/10: Seven years after his previous stint in office, John Kitzhaber is back as Governor. Kitzhaber gave his victory speech in Portland, calling the race the finish a swim upstream.
Another close race was the seat for State Senator. Senator Alan Bates and his opponent, Dave Dotterer, swapped the lead for two days while the votes were counted. Bates will keep his seat, winning by more than 200 votes.
11/5/10: A possible shake-up in city politics in Phoenix. Residents there are still waiting on results for City Council members. City Council members were running unopposed until residents got upset about a big spike in their water bills. Three write-in candidates are giving current City Council members a run for their money. The County Clerk says it's an old-fashioned process for counting these write-in ballots; they hope to have results by the end of today or sometime next week.
11/8/10: Election results are coming in for Phoenix City Council members. Write-in candidates are pulling through with more votes than current Council members.
11/15/10: The final election results are in and they show Senator Alan Bates holding onto his seat by fewer than 300 votes. Bates and Dave Dotterer have been in a tight, back and forth race for State Senate.
11/30/10: It was a close race in the November election and now Republicans want a re-count in a close Southern Oregon race. The State Republican Senate Leader announced today he wants a re-count of the ballots in the District 3 race between Alan Bates and Dave Dotterer. Incumbant Democate Bates leads the race by 275 votes.
12/8/10: A recount is underway for a State Senate seat. The County Clerk's office is hand tabulating ballots for the race between Senator Alan Bates and Dave Dotterer. Two members from the Democrat and Republican parties are supervising the recount. Results are expected in 3-5 days.
12/14/10: Dave Dotterer, the Republican candidate for Oregon State Senate, has conceded from the race. He sent a statement congratulating Alan Bates. He said it was an honor to run and he looks forward to working with Dennis Richardson as a legislative staffer.
Political Process / Campaigning	Dudley Visit	News	10/17/2010	6p, 11p, 12p	3
Republican candidate for Governor, Chris Dudley, stopped in Medford today on his campaign trail. A town hall meeting was held at RCC. Oregon has not elected a Republican governor since 1982.
Consumer Affairs / Fees	Paid Content	News	10/19/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	4
The Mail Tribune and Daily Tidings, local newspapers to Southern Oregon, began charging their readers to access their online content. This move is simply to sustain a business model. Anyone can read up to three articles each month for free; if they register contact information with the website, they can read up to 10 articles a month for free.
Economy / Employment	Unemployment	News	10/19/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	23
Oregon's unemployment rate is unchanged for another month. It held at 10.6% in September. It's been stuck between 10.5% and 10.7% for 11 months, but is lower than last September when the rate was 11%.

Business / Expansion	Intel	News	10/19/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	4
Intel is bringing hundreds of jobs to Oregon. The company announced plans to invest up to $8 billion in new chip plants in Arizona and Oregon. They say that will create up to 8,000 construction jobs and up to 1,000 permanent high tech jobs. The new Oregon facility is scheduled to start up in 2013 and will be built in Hillsboro.
Josephine County / City Regulations	GP Holiday	News	10/20/2010	11p, 6a, 12p, 6p	7
No decision in Grants Pass when it comes to a street closure for the Holiday season. The Town Center Association decided to move the Holiday celebration to make it bigger and more accessible, but the idea was met with some opposition. The association wanted to close 5th Street between G ad H Streets, but some businesses say the closure would isolate them, blocking access during the day. The issue has been tabled until next Monday morning when members will consider a revised proposal by the association, which could include a compromise to the Holiday event. 11/28/10: Grants Pass is gearing up for the Holidays and shutting down part of a street for the celebrations. Only part of G Street is closed. The city was going to shut down the whole street, but businesses complained because it would interfere with their deliveries, so the city worked with store owners and found a compromise. Next week a 40 foot Christmas tree will be on the portion of the street that's shut down.
Transportation / Bus	Bus GPS	News	10/21/2010	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	5
Rogue Valley Transportation District is installing GPS systems in their busses to help you get from point A to point B faster. GPS data is taken from the busses and transferred back to the transportation center, allowing officials to locate the approximate location and time of each bus. Eventually they want to make the data available to passengers on their smart phones.
Environment / Weather	Wet Winter	News	10/22/2010	5p, 6p	2
A wet winter is predicted for Southern Oregon. Officials at Lost Creek Lake are taking precautionary measures to prevent flooding.
Political Process / Measures	CA Marijuana	News	10/22/2010	12p, 5p, 6p	3
According to a new Los Angeles Times-University of Southern California poll, most Californians don't want to legalize marijuana. 51% said they will vote against Proposition 19 and 39% said they would vote in favor. 10% said they didn't know or refused to answer. If passed, Proposition 19 would give voters 21 years old and older to posses up to one ounce of marijuana and grow 25 square foot gardens for personal pleasure.
Fires / Fire Season	Fire Season	News	10/23/2010	6p, 11p, 6a	3
Today marked the end of fire season for Southern Oregon. The fire danger level has been lowered to green and all fire restrictions have been removed. The season began July 1st and lasted 115 days. There were 156 fires total, 57 caused by lightning and 99 human caused. The end of fire season also marks the beginning of burn season for many people.

Jackson County / Ashland	Homeless Protest	News	12/2/2010	11p, 6a, 12p, 6p	14
A group of homeless people protested in Ashland, saying they've been there all week and are frustrated they have no place to go. A few weeks ago, police told them they had to get out of downtown, but gave them tickets for camping in the woods. The group says they want to live where they can govern themselves, a place to clean up, get a warm meal, and a bed.
12/5/10: The protest continues. A homeless group in Ashland was in the Plaza today with signs and a message for the city. They've been protesting all week long, after some have received tickets for illegal camping in Ashland's forest. Demonstrators say the rally wasn't planned, but as soon as they realized how many of them were getting tickets they decided they had to do something and get their voices heard.
12/16/10: Residents in Ashland remain divided on how to handle the homeless situation. Many spoke out at a City Council meeting about how police are dealing with the issue. Ashland's Police Chief responded to complaints on the city's blog, calling them false allegations. One complaint was that police are taking camping gear that belongs to homeless people. Store owners say the homeless sit outside their stores and drive away customers.
12/22/10: The Ashland City Council met to discuss a proposal to lift the city's ban on camping in public. The Council voted against lifting the ban which has been in place since 2008.
